We want to make you aware of a new tool that some of our middle school teachers may be utilizing in their classrooms this 4th quarter.

We are calling it Husky PAW Character Feedback.

This is intended to be used as a communication tool to provide feedback to parents. It is not meant to be included as part of an academic grade. Instead, it will help teachers better communicate student strengths as well as areas of needed growth in a straightforward and easy-to-understand format. If your child's teacher is using the Husky PAW Character Feedback tool, the information can be located by logging onto your child's online JMC account. We believe this is another good way for us to share information on your child's growth. Go Huskies!
